Father Ken's Note

When will the distribution of the Precious Blood re-occur at Mass?

As you are well aware, especially by a notice that ran in our bulletins for four straight weeks back in December and early January, advertising for people to step forward and serve as ministers of the cup, based upon Bishop Kulick's permission to re-institute the distribution of the "cup" starting the First Week of Lent.

Bishop Kulick, in his directive allowing for this to occur, said that it would be up to the pastors of each parish as to whether or not this practice would re-occur in his parish. In the notice we ran in the bulletins for four weeks. I stated that I would be open to re-instituting this practice but that it would actually be up to the parishioners of each individual parish as to whether or not each individual parish would be able to re-start the practice.

The responses that I received from people willing to serve as ministers of the cup unfortunately did not match the rhetoric that I have received from parishioners wanting this practice back. If all those who have written to me, if all those who have spoken to me, and if all those who have contacted the Bishop to have this practice resume applied to serve as a minister of the "cup", we would be able to start the practice the First Week of Lent. Sadly, this did not occur, and so we will not be able to resume the practice in any of our four parishes the First Week of Lent. The responses I received are as follows: 7 people stepped forward at Mount Saint Peter, 6 people stepped forward at Saint Margaret Mary, 1 person stepped forward at Saint Joseph and 1 person stepped forward at Saint Mary.

You might be asking how many ministers of the cup are needed for any one of our four parishes to re-start the practice. The math is as follows: We need 2 ministers of the cup for each Mass, and we should have enough ministers available on the schedule that each person only has to serve once every fourth week. Mount Saint Peter has 3 weekend Masses, 2 cup ministers a Mass, means we need 6 ministers of the cup a weekend, and with serving once every fourth week, we need a total of 24 ministers of the cup. The formula is the same for each parish. Saint Margaret Mary has 3 weekend Masses, 24 ministers of the cup needed. Saint Joseph and Saint Mary both have 2 weekend Masses, 16 ministers of the cup needed.

We will start the practice of distributing the Precious Blood during Mass at any one of our four parishes once a parish has acquired the number of ministers needed to re-start the practice, and training and clearance requirements are fulfilled.

Father Ken

If there is someone you know who is in these categories, please inform the parish office or contact me, Joyce Rapsinski, directly at 724-335-7492.

The Comfort Blanket Ministry could also use donations of cotton fabric to continue the ministry.
