Father Ken's Lenten Note

This Lent "Exercise Your Gifts and Talents to Glorify God."

When President Kennedy entered Congress and began his political career he was told, "The way to get along is to go along." Well, that is one way for us to find our place in the world. We can simply go along with the tide, believe what those around us believe, do what they do, say what they say. It is a comfortable way to live, except for the fact that we become frightfully weary of ourselves and life becomes "intolerable and a torment." One reason why there are so many people with emotional problems and nervous exhaustion is that, in going along, they do violence to themselves. In going along, we can become cyphers, victims of the choices and decisions of other people. In going along, we deny the very essence of our being.

Life becomes meaningful, however, only when we exercise our gifts and talents to "glorify God" with integrity and independence, faith and fortitude. Some years ago, at the Empire Exhibition in Johannesburg, South Africa, a peculiar technical glitch on the opening night of the exhibition caused many people to be disappointed. It had been planned that a 3,000 foot beam of light, cast by a 14 million candle power beacon, would be thrown into the sky. But when this occurred, no beam of light was able to be seen, for the engineers had not taken into account the Johannesburg climate. The light was invisible because there was no humidity, no dust, no cloud for it be reflected against. Light, unless it strikes an object, is invisible. Likewise when we simply "go along", our light that we can offer as a person, strikes nothing and is invisible. Our light does not shine in the darkness of our time unless it challenges things as they are. We, as Christians, are not here to go along. Jesus did not stir up the dust of His day by going along. He stirred up the dust of His day so that His efforts of good could be seen by all.

Jesus says to all of us this Lent, "Let your light shine that all people may see your good works and give glory to your Father." My prayer, our prayer, this Lent needs to be this: "O God, in whom I trust, grant me the courage to stand against the tide of the many, help me to battle the injustice of the world and my community. Let me stir up the dust in my battle for good, so that my light, my difference may be seen. Keep me from sitting back and just going along to get along, because in this, I who can change the world, become invisible."

BAPTISM

Last weekend, we welcomed into the Church through the saving waters of Baptism:

*Damon Augustus Ousley, Mount St. Peter
Charlotte Cynthia Emanuele, St. Margaret Mary*

We rejoice with their parents and with all who celebrate their newborn lives in the family of God.

DIOCESE OF GREENSBURG SAINT JOSEPH PILGRIMAGE

March 18, 2024

Bishop Larry J. Kulick will lead a pilgrimage to the four Saint Joseph parishes and Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, to dedicate the Diocese of Greensburg to the guardianship and protection of Saint Joseph for the Eucharistic Revival Year of Mission in 2024, the Jubilee Year of 2025, and the 75th Anniversary of the Diocese of Greensburg in 2026. Patron of the Universal Church, Families, Workers, Immigrants, and a Happy Death, Saint Joseph nurtured the child Jesus in the first Eucharistic Adoration Chapel in his home in Nazareth, responded with faith each time he was called by God, and is a model to us of faithful discipleship as we live our mission as Eucharistic people. Each site along the pilgrimage will focus on a different aspect as Joseph as a faithful disciple, helping us to strengthen and rededicate our own relationship with Jesus Christ.

SAINT JOSEPH: PATRON OF WORKERS

Monday, March 18, 6 PM

Saint Joseph Parish, New Kensington

Evening Prayer with special presentation on Saint Joseph the Worker by author Mike Aquilina from the Saint Paul Center for Biblical Theology.

CATECHESIS CORNER - WHAT IS EUCHARISTIC ADORATION? PART 1

How do you truly get to know someone if you do not spend time with them? Think about your most special friendships. How did they become so special? Probably through a lot of confiding and listening while sharing joys and sorrows, consoling each other in the priceless quality time spent together. How do you really get to know and love Jesus if you do not share these things with him too? This is what Eucharistic Adoration is. It is the opportunity to spend one-on-one, quality time with Jesus, face-to-face. Laugh and cry with him; thank, praise, and adore him; ask for his help, protection or consolation; or just sit in silence, rest and bask in his love, open to receive any graces he wishes to give to you. There is nothing too little to talk with him about. Nothing is unimportant to him. Think about taking Jesus up on his offer to "Come away with me by yourselves to a quiet place and rest a while," Mark 6:31.
